

NEVADA GIRLS STATE
ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1

Memorializes the 2013 session of the Nevada legislature to enact legislation on the issue of Nevada labor laws for prisoners.

WHEREAS; The purpose of a Committee of Criminal Justice is ultimately to increase the money saved in Nevada by enacting labor laws for prisoners, as well as to promote the welfare of the environment, and to increase the amount of help with civil issues of the citizens; and

WHEREAS; Criminals have negatively impacted the community, so they should give back by positively improving the state of the community; and

WHEREAS; Criminals live free off of the taxes paid by innocent, hard working, citizens; and

WHEREAS; Punishment should be set into motion that will promote a positive change in the community; and

WHEREAS; When prisoners are able to, by specific areas of Nevada, go into deteriorating locations and help in ways they need; and

WHEREAS; When prisoners are able to go into Gardnerville and build houses for the homeless with dire need; and

WHEREAS; When prisoners are able to go into Laughlin and help garden for the farmers they will advance the environmental culture of farmland; and

WHEREAS; When prisoners are able to go into Las Vegas and pick up trash on the highways, streets, and parks, it would enable the overall welfare of the environment to be upgraded;

WHEREAS; If prisoners were able to go into these specific areas of Nevada, the overall welfare of cities such as Gardnerville, Laughlin, and Las Vegas would spark a rise in the promotion of the environment;

WHEREAS; This labor law would firsthand promote good in the community by giving prisoners an outlet for such frustrations instead of enabling more fights;

WHEREAS; Criminals in public areas wouldn't negatively affect the safety of the community because the prisons should take the prisoners in small groups that have a good guard to prisoner ratio;

WHEREAS; By taking guards out of the prisons, more guards would be needing to watch over the rest of the prisoners therefore creating more jobs for the public;

WHEREAS; By guards taking prisoners out of the prisons, it gives the prisoners an outlet for their physical, mental, and emotional frustrations, thereby decreasing the amount of violence in prisons;

WHEREAS; By giving the prisoners an outlet, and a chance to help the world we are therefore helping in the development of their moral state, and therefore decreasing the number of reoccurring prisoners in prison;

WHEREAS; By allowing the prisoners to participate in recreational games, eat plates of food, and have freedom in the courtyards, they're not getting the punishment that they deserve;

WHEREAS; Prisoners should give back to the very same community they once negatively affected and tried to destroy; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GIRLS STATE OF NEVADA, assembled in Carson City on July 6, 2012, that the 2013 Session of the Nevada legislature is hereby memorialized to enact legislation to set into motion labor laws for prisoners.
