

NEVADA GIRLS STATE
ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1

AN ACT to increase access to disposable menstrual products in prisons, homeless shelters, and colleges.

SECTION 1: Disposable menstrual products shall be provided at no cost to individuals who menstruate and who are housed in state prison facilities and county jails and houses of correction used for the general confinement of individuals and in any other state or local facility where menstruating individuals are detained or confined by law enforcement agencies.

SECTION 2: The chief administrator of a state prison, jail, house of correction or other holding facility shall work to ensure that such products shall be available in a convenient manner that does not stigmatize any persons seeking such products.

SECTION 3: Any provider of temporary housing assistance, which shall include but not be limited to, a family shelter, a shelter for adults, a hotel used for emergency shelter, an emergency apartment, a domestic violence shelter, a runaway and homeless youth shelter, or a safe house for refugees, shall be required to provide disposable menstrual products, including but not limited to, sanitary napkins, tampons, and panty liners, at no cost to menstruating individuals. Such products shall be available in a convenient manner that does not stigmatize any persons seeking such products.

SECTION 4: All colleges and universities shall provide disposable menstrual products in all restrooms of such school buildings or buildings for people who menstruate. Such products shall be provided at no charge to students. Such products shall be available in a convenient manner that does not stigmatize any persons seeking such products.

SECTION 5: This ACT will be effective upon final passage.
